WITH ARTHUR APPLETON

Welcome to old (in club years) opponents. And even though coinciding relegation and promotion have mainly kept United and Bolton apart for most of twenty years, this is still their 86th League meeting. Over the long years United have had the better of things.

Since the resumption of meetings last season though, results have gone Bolton's way. Remember the depressing 4-0 defeat at Burnden Park early on – Bill McGarry won't have. This season there was a less traumatic defeat there, 1-0 on 29th September, when Bolton, bottom of the table, got their first home win from an earlyish goal by Chris Thompson.

In the home game here last season Ray Clarke scored in the first half added time, making Stan Anderson, then Bolton manager, ask why four minutes of added time. In the second half, in which there was a wave of five bookings, young Mike Bennett, (in for unfit Alan Gowling), soon equalised, and then Mick Martin at speed got his only League goal of the season to make it a 2-1 win. Clarke, with Mick Harford signed, was trying to come back at the time, but he had only one more League game and the Exeter Cup ties to follow.

Bolton spent a quarter of a million on the pitch at Burnden Park in the 1980 close season, installing undersoil heating similar to that at Maine Road. The pitch had come in for criticism, so it was levelled down. Some 400 tons of sand were injected and miles of pipework laid.

So Bolton were able to play their home games throughout the severe weather. They had a run of five, and got three wins and a couple of draws, enough to put them in the Fourth Round and shoot them up from the bottom.

They drew 1-1 at second-from-top Oldham last Saturday and they're in a reviving run of five League games without defeat. There's a deal of elbowing going on down at the bottom with these winning spurts. Orient have spurted away altogether. I'm glad Newcastle are away from that frenetic jostling.

Chris Thompson, becoming a regular this season, got the goal at Oldham – his seventh. Tony Henry has six. Our old well-educated friend, Alan Gowling, has two, including one in the 3-1 Third Round win over Derby.

Away from home Bolton's return is not impressive: a single win at Derby 2-0 in September, and draws at Norwich in October and last weeks at Oldham. And they've scored only four goals away in the League apart from Palace's two, fewer than any club in the first three divisions.

This match, of course, is important for Newcastle as next Saturday they're at Cambridge who are struggling at home. A full return following the wins over Watford and Norwich would put Newcastle nicely among those pushing the leading three.

Imre Varadi's tenth League goal last Saturday in twenty appearances means he's running level for twenty by the end, a number reached by Alan Shoulder in 1979-80 helped by quite a few penalties. Twenty is impressive these days. In addition Imre got two Cup goals against Colchester.

David Mills confirmed his reputation that he can play a bit, in footballers' parlance, and also got a heartening goal which will make that travelling he has to do a deal pleasanter.

Now that mild days have actually become common, a start is being made on those postponed games – this one is from 9th January. It was odd during the long freeze-up when it seemed that the League authorities were being called upon to admit to panic or risk being accused of complacency. But Graham Kelly's office played it calmly, emitting no cries of despair.

I had a fancy that Derby would be drawn down into the relegation mire and on the evidence of their first half showing here even go down to the Third. They're said to be deep in debt, and when their manager, Colin Addison, was sacked just over a week ago they were thrashed 6-1 by Watford, (who are, surely, in spite of Newcastle's 3-2 win there, certs for promotion.) But Derby don't do badly at home. They could save themselves there. Their 3-1 win over Sheffield Wednesday last Saturday was the kind of result they need. They have some points in the bag and so they could weather the season. But if that 3-1 win is to become somewhat exceptional, they could be vulnerable to a rush up of clubs from the bottom which we often see late in the season.

SPOTLIGHT ON WESLEY SAUNDERS

In a first team career of only a few months, there can scarcely have been another player in United's history who has had the punters reaching for the record books more than young Wesley Saunders.

For instance, how long is it since a United full-back conceded three penalties, and yet finished on the winning side on each occasion? And how many matches is it since BOTH United full backs got on the scoresheet in the same game?

So young Wes has certainly got off to an interesting start! On the subject of the penalties, he thinks he was harshly done to on two occasions.

"I accept that the Charlton decision was a fair one", he explains. "But against Luton, I definitely played the ball and against Colchester it hit my chest. I would have felt much worse if any of them had cost us a match, but we won the three in the end".

And the goal at Colchester when he and Brownlie got on the scoresheet? "I glanced across the goal just before Kenny Wharton took the throw-in, so I knew roughly where I was when I cracked it. To be honest, the shot could have gone anywhere but when it screamed into the corner I felt great".

Wes played his first football at junior school in West Boldon. "The master was dead keen on the game and he started me off. I enjoyed it from the start. County and school football saw me playing in midfield but when I played for England schoolboys, it was in the left back position". In fact, Wes appeared three times for England, twice against Scotland (one defeat, one draw) and once against Wales (lost). Despite the results he felt he had acquitted himself quite well. "I had three steady games", he recalls. "The international cap I received for those games is a most treasured keep-sake and my Mam was quick to put it in the cabinet at home".

He remembers his debut match at Chelsea well. "I was rooming with Barty (David Barton) and he settled me down. Before the game itself I was a bag of nerves but once I got on the park I settled down quite well". Since then, it was the Luton match which he readily remembers as his most memorable to date. "The crowd were absolutely brilliant".

Saturday's match against Norwich presented some problems. "The conditions were difficult but we definitely deserved the result. I think I could have done a lot better personally but it was great to see David Mills get off to a good start. He's sharp, and he's boosted everybody in the team".

Saunders is adamant that Newcastle are still very much in the promotion race. "I still fancy our chance if we can get some consistency. I desperately want to play first division football with Newcastle so I keep hoping".

Like many of today's young footballers, Wes is well aware that you have to be really good to survive. "The financial side is in the back of most player's minds, and I know only too well what I have to do".

So what lies ahead for this talented full back? Maybe the last word should go to his senior colleague at the back, John Brownlie. "If he works hard at his game and isn't casual, if he avoids all the bad habits, Wes Saunders has a very big future in the game". From one past international to one future one, perhaps?

Behind the Scenes

A look around the United scene with Secretary Russell Cushing.

The sanction imposed by the Football Association on Chelsea Football Club and its supporters, in an attempt to prevent Chelsea supporters gaining admission to their Club's remaining away matches this season, has created strong objection from the majority of Clubs that Chelsea have to visit, including Newcastle United.

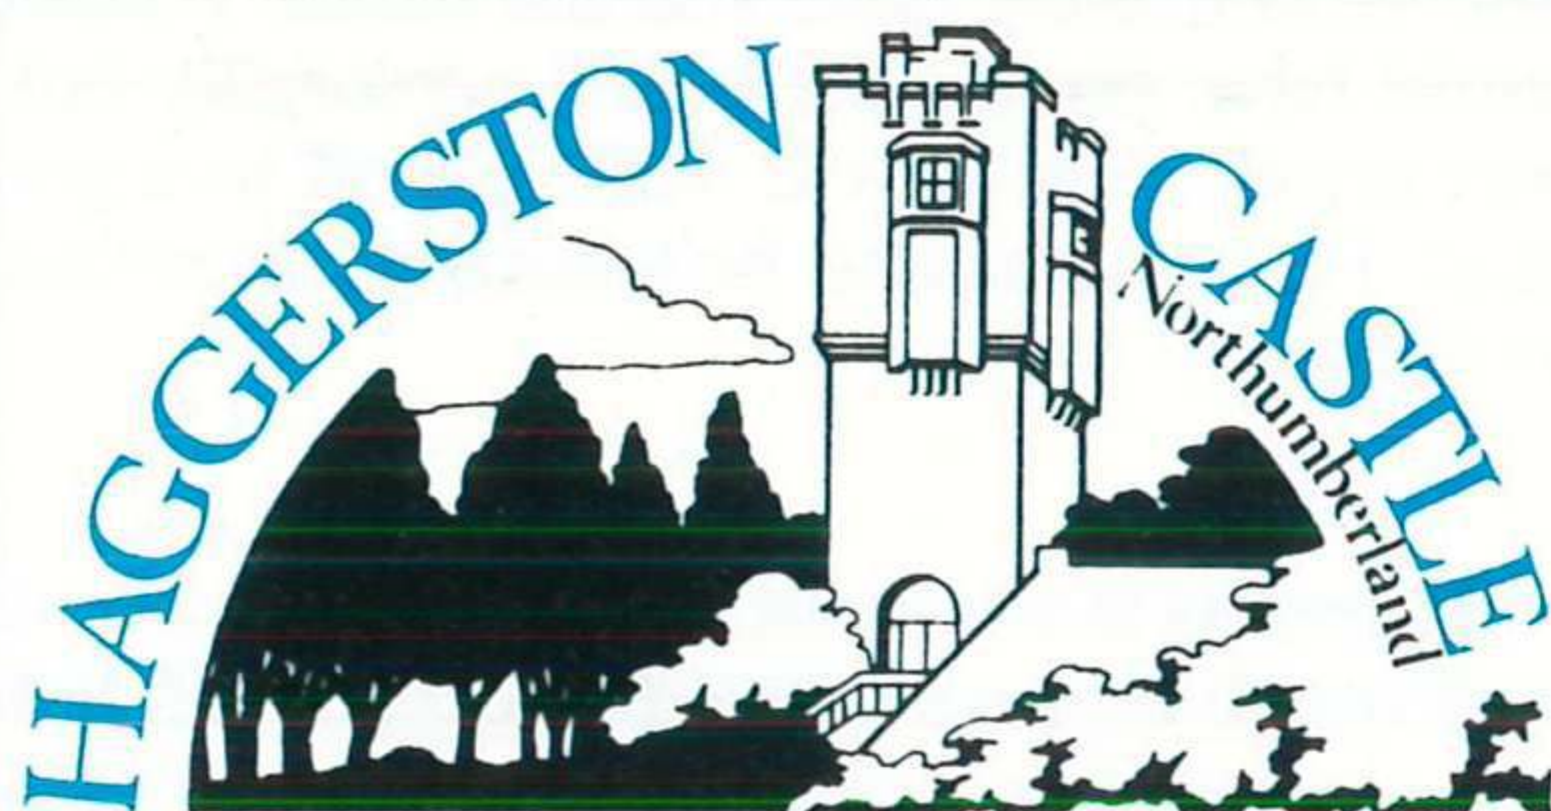

The Football Association have dictated that all Chelsea's remaining away fixtures be all-ticket affairs, with no tickets on sale on match days.

Wrexham's efforts to obtain an alteration in the Football Association's decision have been widely publicised and we also have written to the Association setting out our objections in the strongest possible terms.

The experience of Clubs already involved has shown that Chelsea fans are still managing to infiltrate away grounds and whilst the sanction may be having a limited effect on Chelsea its effect on the Clubs that they have visited and are still to visit will create a great financial loss. It has been proved in the past that at all-ticket matches where no tickets are on sale on the match day, attendances take a considerable drop as supporters are either unable to get to the grounds to buy tickets beforehand or just don't bother at all.

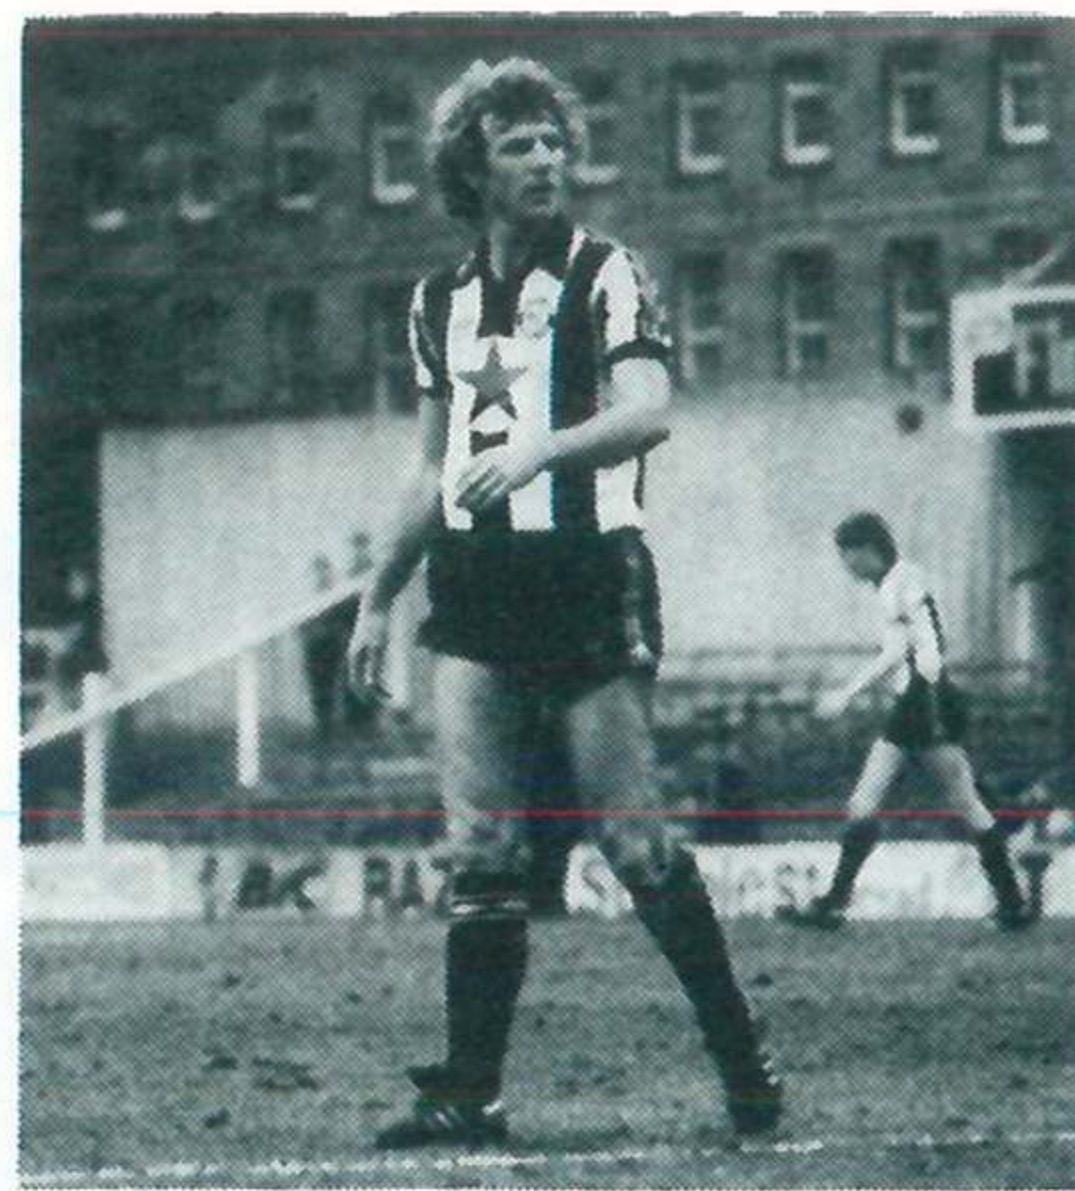

With Football needing every penny that it can get at this present time, the Football Association's decision can be considered a very unreasonable one for many Second Division Clubs. As we do not play Chelsea until March 27th there is still time for the Association to change its decision. We will have to wait and see if good sense will reign.

Following a visit to London last Wednesday we are hopeful, after a hearing of our case by Under Secretary of State for Employment, Mr. David Waddington, that a final decision on United's work permit application for Australian International George Christopoulos will reach us in the next few days. Newcastle M.P. Bob Brown must be thanked for all the help he has given in the past few weeks to try and secure a permit for George, who must also be congratulated for the patience and determination that he has shown as we continue to plough our way through the 'red tape'.

At a Football Association Disciplinary hearing on Friday last, John Brownlie was suspended for two matches from Monday of this week, 1st February. This means that John will miss tonight's game and Saturday's visit to Cambridge United. Still on the disciplinary front it looks almost certain that after being booked for the sixth time this season, Steve Carney, at present on nineteen points, will be suspended for up to three matches commencing 13th February.

What bad luck for Kevin Todd. After breaking into the first team and making a useful contribution in his first three games, a training accident has put him out of action for at least the next couple of months. Kevin underwent surgery on an ankle in the latter part of last week and we wish him a speedy recovery.

Fortunately we were rescued from what could have been a difficult situation by the fact that on loan David Mills was standing by to make his League debut for United. He certainly did enough on Saturday to prove that it was a wise decision by Arthur Cox to secure David's signature, albeit at this stage on a temporary basis.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF BOLTON WANDERERS

One of the founder members of the Football League, the Wanderers were originally known as Christ Church when they were formed in 1874. In 1877 their present name was adopted and was a name which was to become one of the best known in English Football.

The Wanderers moved to their current home at Burnden Park in 1895 after spells at Park Recreation Ground, Cockles Field and Pikes Lane.

They won the First F.A. Cup Final to be played at Wembley Stadium in 1923 when an estimated 200,000 packed the Empire Stadium to overflowing. They dominated the Competition in the Twenties, going on to lift the Cup in 1926 and 1929 but they then had to wait until 1958 for their next major honour when the legendary Nat Lofthouse led them to F.A. Cup glory when they beat the Munich-ravaged Manchester United side. They won the Second Division Championship in 1908-09 and 1977-78 and the Third Division title in 1972-73.

After being relegated to the Second Division several times in their early days they enjoyed an unbroken First Division spell from 1911-1933.

From 1935 to 1964 the Wanderers remained in the First Division and in 1970-71 they dropped into the Third Division for the first time in their history. Two years later they were promoted as champions.

They won promotion to the First Division at the end of the 1977-78 season, champions, after twice finishing in third place in the Second Division. Were relegated to the 2nd Division in 1980.

JOHN THOMAS

A speedy striker, John was given his chance in League Football when he joined Everton. Signed for the Wanderers on a free transfer in June, 1980 on the recommendation of his former team-mate Brian Kidd.

CHRIS THOMPSON

A speedy attacker with plenty of skill, Chris joined the Wanderers from school. He became an apprentice and then went on to sign full professional forms in July, 1977. Has represented England at Youth level.

MIKE CARTER

A highly talented striker with an ability to score spectacular goals. Mike had a spell on loan with Mansfield in the 1978/79 season making 18 League appearances and scoring four goals. He made his League debut for Wanderers against Bristol City in December 1979 and scored his first League goal later that month in the dying seconds to snatch a home point against Everton at Burnden Park after coming on as substitute.

MIKE BENNETT

A member of the successful England Youth squad which won the 1980 European Youth Championships in East Germany, Mick is one of the most promising youngsters in the game. Has played at full-back and in midfield. Bolton born, he joined the Wanderers as a schoolboy.

Won International recognition with the Scottish Under-21's squad last season.

IAN BRENNAN

Joined Bolton for a bargain £25,000 from Sunderland in October 1981. A stylish, experienced full-back, with well over 400 League appearances behind him, Whitworth earned seven England caps in his Leicester City days.

JEFF CHANDLER

A livewire winger with an abundance of skill and control, Jeff cost Wanderers a modest £40,000 when he signed from Leeds United in October. The Hammersmith-born lad, who began his League career with Blackpool has won International recognition with the Republic of Ireland.

ALAN GOWLING

Signed for a £120,000 fee from Newcastle United three seasons ago after four years at St. James' Park. Started his career with Manchester United and then moved to Huddersfield. Has won tremendous respect both on and off the field and is a leading light in the Professional Footballers Association of which he is the current Chairman.

BRIAN KIDD

Brian was a member of Manchester United's European Cup winning team in 1968 and he was later capped twice by England. He moved on to Arsenal for £110,000. After two seasons at Maine Road he joined Everton for £150,000 and became the club's top scorer. He joined Bolton for £150,000 in May 1980.

A very talented player who had the misfortune to sustain a severe knee injury which put him out of action for the second half of season 1978/79 and the first half of the 1979/80 season, but recovered to win back a regular place.

LEN CANTELLO

Len cost the Wanderers a record £350,000 fee when he signed from West Bromwich Albion in June 1979. He is the sort of midfield player who delights in stamping his authority on a game. Always looking for a chance to attack he is an exciting player with an eye for seeing an unexpected opening.

DUSAN NIKOLIC

Signed from Red Star Belgrade in September 1980 to strengthen the midfield. Yugoslavian born, has represented his country at Senior International level on four occasions and also has eleven Under-23 Caps and 24 Youth International Caps. THE NORTH COUNTRY ROBSONS

A wonderful statistical work on the game of football was in the bookshops this Christmas, "Rothmans, Football League Players Records" by Barry Hugman. Yours truly gets a mention in the acknowledgements too and really its a must for any boffin like myself. Packed with facts and figures covering every player to turn out in League football since the War... and there's quite a few of them I can tell you... over 500 pages and 28,000 line entries!

Amongst the many interesting facts I glanced at was one that came to light regarding the north country Robsons that have played football. Out of 19 Robsons that have appeared in League soccer since World War Two no less than 17 are north-easterners. There have been our own 'Pop' Robson, Keith Robson and Tommy Robson, all locals. Manchester United's current Robson from Chester-le-Street way; John Hopkinson, Barrass, Eastham, Jack, Holden, Smith, Vizard and of course the legendary Nat Lofthouse to name but a few.

There have been many fine tussles between United and The Wanderers to recollect; that three match Cup-tie of 1976, the Good Friday celebrations of 1965 or the amazing 3-2 Magpie victory on our way to Wembley in 1951, all are well known. Perhaps though, one of the best games to be staged and a match that has not really been given due credit alongside those three previous epics was a wartime Cup-tie at the end of April 1945 during the days of Milburn, Stubbins, Woodward and Lofthouse.

Before meeting up with Bolton in the Third Round of the Football League (North) Cup competition, United had defeated Darlington and Bradford City in the previous rounds, a tournament which substituted for the F.A. Cup during the war, eventually deciding the national champions... North victors v Southern victors... in the capital. It was a two legged affair and in the first game in Lancashire United went down 0-3 to a Bolton side roughly in the same position as United in the League table. The scoreline of 0-3 sounds convincing enough, but the gap between the sides was not great, in fact it was United who threw away two goals; an offside blunder and a poor backpass which left guest Robson the ex Villa and Derby full-back who hails from Consett; Jimmy Robson, ex Burnley during the 60's, and of course Ipswich boss Bobby Robson. Also three more appeared for the Quakers during the 60's, John, Matt and Lance Robson who started here at St. James' Park but who spent most of his career at Darlington. The fifties saw more of the Robson ilk; Ben with Southport; two Toms, at Sunderland and Grimsby; Charlie at Darlington and a couple more at Gateshead, Ron and Don Robson. Finally a Robson from Crook, Albert, he appeared on 48 occasions for the Palace side just after the war to round up this amazing statistic. A truly Geordie name is Robson if I've ever seen one.

LOOKING BACK WITH THE WANDERERS

With seven Cup Final appearances under their belt our visitors today, Bolton Wanderers are clearly one of the country's sentimental clubs despite their position presently. A whole line of famous players have worn their jersey in the past, names like Scottish International 'keeper, David Cumming of Middlesbrough stranded. Also United didn't field Stubbins or Gordon, two key players. 20,000 saw Lofthouse with two goals, and Malcolm Barrass net for Wanderers while George Hunt, their ex England man had control of the midfield, something he didn't get when Jimmy Gordon returned the following week.

Nevertheless Tyneside had implicit faith in Uniteds ability to overcome the self imposed 0-3 defeat. Four goals were the minimum required but with goalgetter in chief Albert Stubbins back in action anything was possible... "Stubbins would get them all on his own," all said! Uniteds prematch programme notes reported, "For a start I am forecasting a record wartime crowd for today"... the writer was indeed correct with 38,704 turning up at Gallowgate, a massive attendance for those years when usually most crowds struggled to reach half that number. Uniteds side was:

That big crowd witnessed one of the most superb rallies by a Newcastle side. Constantly attacking their opponents who were penned back into their own penalty area from the word go, Stubbins got the break through... then he grabbed a second... and then an equaliser at 3-3 all before half-time. The arena was buzzing as one could expect. Bolton pulled themselves together after the interval holding Uniteds forward dash to their previous three goals so come the final whistle and extra-time was forced. With dusk drawing in fast – no lights in those wartime days – from being on the threshold of an amazing victory United hit the ground with a bump when Bolton swiftly bounced back through two goals by Lofthouse and Hunt. Milburn, barely 21 then, scored another for United but time ran out to make the closing scoreline 4-2, and 5-4 to The Wanderers on aggregate.

Bolton progressed to the North final, defeating Manchester United and then lifted the All England Cup with a 2-1 victory over Chelsea, whose side unbelievably contained seven guest players out of their eleven, times were different in those days.

ARGUMENTS SETTLED... PART II

Continuing Keith Toppings queries about Newcastle United from our last issue...

(1) Eric Ross just about did play as many times for his country as he did for United, in fact appearing twice for Newcastle in the League Cup and once for Northern Ireland against Israel in 1969. Eric did feature quite well for both Hartlepoons and Northampton.

(2) Our two dynamic centre-forwards of late, Wyn Davies and Malcolm Macdonald never played in the same team together, Keith, although both did appear on Uniteds team group for the start of the 1971 season. Davies left in August 1971 for Maine Road, a matter of a couple of months after Supremac arrived so they never saw League action together... which to many was a pity.

(3) Viv Busby appeared on five occasions (League and Cup) and netted two goals during his stay on Tyneside from December 1971 to February 1972.

(4) The last player to score a hat-trick at St. James Park in a League game for the Club, Alan Gowling who registered three against Everton in the 5-0 victory on 10th January 1976. By coincidence he should be in action this evening.

(5) Brothers Ron and Chris Guthrie never appeared in Uniteds League or Cup line-up together. The nearest they came was against Halifax in a League Cup tie at Gallowgate during September 1971 when Chris was substitute without taking the field, while Ron was at full-back.

(6) Finally, Keiths last question is, "How many times did Jinky Smith and Tony Green appear in the same team?" Surprisingly you may think, not many I can say. Unfortunately both players tragic injuries tended not to coincide with one another, so while one star was on the treatment table the other was delighting us all on the turf. Both, however played in the same team three times during March 1972, Jinky appearing twice as substitute after a long lay off, and also once during the early part of the following season before Tony Greens fateful day at Selhurst Park.

YOU ASK.... I'LL ANSWER

Send me your questions and disputes on Uniteds past or present and I'll settle all the arguments. Write to, Digest, NUFC, St. James' Park, Newcastle upon Tyne.

REMEMBER...

Ron McGarry

Remember Ron McGarry... how could one forget. Both this afternoons visitors, Bolton and ourselves have experienced the McGarry personality. There hasn't I suppose really been a bigger character at Gallowgate since the days he joked around St. James' Park during the mid-sixties. Very haughty and buoyant to say the least, "The greatest thing since sliced bread" he once described himself! As well as that though he was also a very important cog in Uniteds promotion machine of 1965.

He scored 16 vital goals in that season, stocky and at 5'9" he hustled his way through Division Two defenders as Uniteds battering ram leader. As Joe Harvey said back in 1965, "McGarry's our heavyman in our forward line. He suffers for it. You never hear him complain, but I've seen him come off the field a mass of bruises." He might pick up quite a punishment but you can bet that his opposing number would have just as many bruises, and more, "Cassius" he was of course known as, after those dog fights with the opposition.

Born in Whitehaven, an ex miner his early football took him as an amateur with Workington alongside Bill Shankley, into the Army with the Scots Guards where he tried a bit of rugby and then back to Workington in June 1960 teaming up with boss there, Joe Harvey. Bolton nipped in to sign him in February 1962 when he was showing good form with the Reds, 25 goals in just less than 100 appearances for them, and he ended up at St. James' Park in December of that year signed by his old manager Harvey for £17,500.

There would always be a joke from the mouth of McGarry, he even had special calling cards printed... 'Have goals will Travel' was one, and when on the move from Tyneside, 'Have Boots will Travel' ! He departed once Division One football was obtained, to Barrow in March 1967, he even quipped then, "I always wanted to be a Barrow boy." Later he was with Bolgownie in Australia then back home turning out for Gateshead and now presently employed on Tyneside. Today our game is desperately short of personalities. McGarry was certainly one of the best, we could do with a few more like him now. League and Cup career at St. James' Park: 1962-67 129 appearances 46 goals.

RESERVE AND JUNIOR SCENE

Last weekend our Central League side took part in another entertaining match, this time against West Bromwich Albion at the Hawthorns. Although we went down by the odd goal in five it was a good display by Uniteds second string. Our line up was:

Hardwick; Leaver, Johnson; Smith, Barton, Halliday; Withe, Robson, Willis, Shinton, Pugh. Sub Walton.

Albion included Tony Godden in goal, as well as local lad Tony Lowery. After going behind to a ninety second goal by the Midland side – a 20 yard drive from Summerfield – United came back strongly into the game, Shinton three times going close. Just after half an hours play Newcastle got the equaliser when Dave Willis steered a good header past Godden and then one minute before the interval, Kevin Pugh cracked home a 25 yard shot after good work by Shinton.

In the second half United put a lot of pressure on the Albion defence but it was the home team that scored the winning goals. First Monaghan equalised with a header then Lowery netted after a mistake by Steve Hardwick on the edge of the box. So after playing very well in their past two away games United have come away pointless which is disappointing.

Everton lead the table with 35 points while Liverpool are close behind with three games in hand. In fact the division has a lot of postponed games to catch up on, and places could very quickly change when fixtures get back to normal. United hold a mid-table position.
